Thanks, Melissa! I will add this to the SharePoint library of documents that we have started.

The other USACE mean high water memo will come under separate cover?

Thanks for the informative meeting today. We're looking forward to providing you the support that you need for this task.

-James

Hi James,

Below is a link to a Corps of Engineers website that has the JD package submitted by Cargill. The May 30, 2012 document is the one with elevation information, however the "PJD" documents may also be of interest.
